RAIN MARS NEWPORT'S YACHT WEEK,
BUT CHARITY AFFAIRS STILL GO ON

NEWPORT, August 7.—THERE is no anything that Newport has had plenty of since the opening of the summer season it has been bad weather. The records show that during July there was not a single day that was wholly pleasant. It did not rain every day, for, in fact, there was little rain, but there was plenty of fog, and some portion of every day or night it was cloudy.

August thus far has been holding up to the July record, only more so. Since this month has started, the rain has been every day, and the northeast wind that this city experienced during the present week was the most severe one that it has had in a long while. On Wednesday it rained all day long, and a rainy day makes Bellevue avenue, which at this season of the year is usually gay and festive, look like the middle of December.

The rain prevented the starting of the tennis tournaments at the Casino until late in the week, and all other out of door events were also naturally postponed. Included among these was, of course, the Astor cup race, and it would seem as though the weather man saved up some kind of a storm each year until the arrival of the New York Yacht Club cruise. This fleet has run into bad weather here for the last several years, and especially this week. Thus much of the entertaining that would have been done in honor of the yachtsmen and by them was abandoned. There were, however, quite a number of informal affairs given, luncheons and dinners, and some of the yacht owners and their guests were present at the more formal affairs.

It seems as though as fast as one charity affair has passed there is another one arranged, and there is no question that by the time the present summer ends the members of the social colony here will have contributed very liberally to about all of the relief causes in Europe. There was something like $3,000 raised at the dancette last Saturday at Marble House, half of which money will be given to children made destitute by the war. This week there has been a sale of souvenirs of the war and useful articles at the Casino Theatre building for the benefit of wounded French soldiers, and this too will raise quite a sum of money. For Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt alone contributed $2,000. Mrs. Vanderbilt was one of the committee that acted as patroness, the other members including Mrs. Whitney Warren, Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. R. Livingston Beekman, Mrs. Craig Biddle, Mrs. Royal Phelps Carroll, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt Jr., and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas.

During the coming week there is to be a conference for the Russian Red Cross at the Casino, the feature of which will be a lecture by Leon Dabo on "The Origin and Development of Woman's Costume." The patroness for this affair is headed by Mrs. Bakmeteff, wife of the Russian Ambassador, and the others are Mrs. Beekman, Mrs. Stuart Duncan, Miss Maria de Bardi, Mrs. John A. Elliott, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. James P. Keeney, Mrs. John I. Mason, Mrs. Julia Ward McAllister, Mrs. George P. Messervy, Mrs. Frederick Nelson, Mrs. Charles M. Oelrichs, Miss Alice Preston, Mrs. George L. Rives, Mrs. Robert Reid, Mrs. H. Casimir de Rham, Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Mrs. John J. Wyong and Mrs. Whitman, wife of Governor Whitman.

Valuables lost by the summer residents this summer do not stay long. There has not been a loss reported thus far but that the article reported has put in an appearance again within a few days. One of the first losses reported this summer was that of the diamond brooch of Mrs. Bakmeteff, but that was restored quickly. The same has been the case of other valuables and during the past week two of the women of the summer colony have been made happy by the return of lost articles. One was Mrs. George B. Post, who lost from her automobile a bag that contained several articles of value. The other was Mrs. Stuart Duncan, who during her housewarming party lost her costume diamond and ruby brooch. This was found on the lawn the following morning.

Despite the weather this week, there has been plenty of social entertaining, and those entertaining have included Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. Frederick P. Sands, Mrs. H. Casimir de Rham, Mrs. Frederick Nelson, Mrs. Richard Stevens and his daughter, Miss Elsie Stevens; Mrs. Gibson Farnestock, Mrs. W. Earl Dodge, Mrs. George P. Messervy, Miss Anna Sands, Mrs. John Thompson Spencer, Mrs. Henry J. Whitehouse, Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas, Harry S. Black, Mrs. Stuart Duncan, Mrs. Charles P. Hoffman, Stanley Mortimer, Mrs. R. Livingston Beekman, Mrs. Eugene S. Reynal, Mrs. Hamilton W. Cary, Mrs. James Laurens Van Allen, Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore, Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly, Preston Gibson, Mrs. W. L. Robinson, Henry Walters, Pembroke Jones, Mrs. Henry Cress, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt Jr., Mrs. John J. Mason, Mrs. William Payne Thompson, Mrs. W. G. Adley Low, Mrs. Joseph E. Widener, the latter entertaining in honor of Mrs. John Jacob Astor, who has been her guest; Mrs. George S. Scott, Mrs. Craig Biddle, Mrs. Catherine Stewart, Mrs. Fletcher Rye, Mrs. Joseph H. Willard, Mrs. Charles Potter Kilgus, Mrs. Charles C. Marsh, Mrs. Frank Taylor Evans and Mrs. Cameron McEl. Winslow.

Mrs. and Mrs. George E. Widener have announced dinners for August 13 and 22 and in between, on the 18th, they are to give a dance in honor of their son, Joseph E. Widener, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gould Jennings have planned a big dinner on the same evening as this dance, and on the night previous Mr. and Mrs. George Brooke and Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry have cards out for dinner parties.

Mrs. John R. Drexel, who has a dinner party scheduled for next Thursday night will be the hostess at a dinner on August 17, and Edward J. Berwind, who has arrived at the Elms,

SARATOGA FESTIVE
FOR RACE MEETING

Not in Twenty Years Has Resort Entertained So Many Prominent Persons.

GREAT DANCING REVIVAL

SARATOGA SPRING, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Not in a score of years has this resort entertained so many persons of prominence as flocked here for the opening of the race meeting. The majority have taken cottages or hotel suites for the entire month, with the result that four weeks of festivities are expected. The popularity of the sport was attested by the throng of 10,000 who witnessed the opening on Monday.

When the inclement weather during the following day or two drove the racegoers to shelter they turned their attention to the Casino, the hotel grill and ballrooms, and the stormy weather was the indirect cause of a revival of dancing such as the city has not witnessed in years.

William K. Vanderbilt, who is spending the summer in America for the first time in many years, is at the United States Hotel for the entire month. He is at the racetrack daily, and on Monday acted as one of the stewards, taking the place of Schuyler L. Parsons during the fifth race. Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont and members of the family are likewise here for the month and have apartments at the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont arrived two weeks before the race season opened and will remain until September.

Richard T. Wilson, president of the Saratoga Racing Association, arrived early in the week and with Mrs. Wilson opened the Davidson cottage, which they are occupying. Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Colt have a suite at the Grand Union. They have been joined by their children, Samuel Colt, John Drew Colt and Ethel Barrymore Colt.

Howard P. Renshaw of New York is a visitor here this week. The General, who has not been in Saratoga for many years, expressed a hope that the United States will not be drawn into the European war. He declared his hope that the present conflict will be made the "closing tragedy in the long drama of war."

John Wanamaker has been taking a ten day rest at the United States Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. John McCormack arrived by motor in the week from Tokeneke Park, on Long Island Sound, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Oelrichs. Mr. McCormack gave a song recital Wednesday night before 5,000 persons in Convention Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Dainkerfeld and Miss Marjorie Dainkerfeld are at the United States Hotel.

Howard P. Renshaw of New York is a Grand Union Hotel guest. Mr. and Mrs. C. K. G. Billings are at the United States. Mr. Billings has brought with him, in addition to his racing stable, his famous trotting horse "Chin," which he rides daily under saddle.

James B. Regan, proprietor of the Hotel Knickerbocker, New York, is at the Grand Union with Mrs. Regan and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney have opened Annandale, which they have taken for the season. Foxhall P. Keene, who has not seen the racing here for several years, was also an arrival of the week.

E. Clarence Jones of New York and Palm Beach is at the Grand Union and is a daily attendant at the races.

MOVIE ACTING GAME
AT ALEXANDRIA BAY

Playing Before Camera Summer Diversion—Mrs. Boldt as "Adventuress."

ALEXANDRIA BAY, Aug. 7.—Social events crowd thick and fast. The dance given by Commodore and Mrs. Thomas H. Wheeler of New York was the principal event of the week. Then there was the tennis tournament at the Thousand Islands Yacht Club.

The moving picture play which Miss Katherine Bleeker, who is the guest of Miss Helen Eggleston at Idlewild, has written and which is being acted before the camera man is a novelty in the way of amusement. One of the scenes was pictured at the home of Mrs. George C. Boldt, Jr. It represented a house party arriving at a country house. There is an adventuress—this part is taken by Mrs. George C. Boldt, Jr.—who looks wickedly on as the man she loves pays ardent attention to the heroine, played by Miss Helen Wilbur.

After Mrs. Boldt was instructed in her part and the director said "Show disdain and put on a sinister air," Mrs. Boldt said she didn't know how. Then the director showed her how.

Others in the cast are Paul Dashiell, Henry Viner, Billy Vilas, Allen Hayden, Miss Helen Eggleston, Margaret Nichols, William Cutler, Alice Hammond, Jack Engle 2d, Earl Hayden and Stephen Honsal. The movie is to be shown at the Thousand Islands Yacht Club on August 23.

At the dance given by Commodore and Mrs. Thomas H. Wheeler of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Baron Collier were Mr. and Mrs. Baron Collier of New York, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Burston of South Orange, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Beardsley of New York, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Dewart of New York and Capt. R. E. Burdick.

Miss Naomi Watts of London, a solo dancer, appeared at the United States Hotel Wednesday night with Miss Gertrude James of New York, who is dancing at the States this season.

Many dinner parties have been given at the Casino and Grand Union Hotel grill during the week. On Monday night Miss Egon Fontaine, dressed in the colors of President R. T. Wilson's racing stable, gave a special lucky dance. Miss Margaret Hawkworth and Basil Durant, who are dancing at the Union, presented for the first time a new fox trot.

Receiving at the Casino tea on Wednesday afternoon were Mrs. George A. Saporito, Mrs. Spencer S. Hocho, Mrs. Albia M. Ide, Mrs. George Perkins Lawton, Mrs. Robert Cluett, Jr., Mrs. E. Vassar Baker and Mrs. Samuel Adams Clark.
